  - 4.1. To re-elect Gail Cross as a Director of the Company and a member of the Council of Management retiring by rotation – As vacancy exists and this is unopposed – deemed to be re-elected
  - 4.2. To elect the members who have put themselves forward - notices of persons wishing to act were lodged with Smith & Sons . These were deficient. Second notices were served out of time and not to the office of the company. Agreed to discuss this matter later.
- 5. To continue the appointment of the auditors Robinson Rice – This was not put to a vote as the Council of Management were not satisfied with the service received.
- 6. To continue the appointment of the managing agents Smith & Sons. - Meeting was advised Smith & Sons have been told that we are not satisfied with the service received and advice proffered, they are aware we are seeking an alternative.
- 7. To set the date for the AGM in July 2024 – This was not set – to be advised.

The AGM was closed.

Any other business

Conversation was had as to the wish of those present to enlarge the Council of Management.

As the procedure set out in the Articles of Association of the Company had not been complied with the Council of Management agreed to consider the candidates at its next meeting in September. The members were invited to indicate their support for the Council of Management to have regard to in making their decision. After each candidate, Michael Evans, Helen Clarke, Maria Rennie and Max O'Halloran were given the opportunity to speak to the members - they were well supported.

Meeting Close – 19:50 p.m.

These minutes are only a record of the formal resolutions considered and the decisions taken in respect of the matters forming the business of the AGM as set out in the agenda.
